

Working with refugee youth - webinar by Human Rights Academy (Oslo, Norway)

During the webinar we will discuss good practices of social inclusion, integration and promotion of tolerance among young migrants, asylum seekers and refugees. The webinar is suitable for youth workers, teachers, community and NGO leaders.

The Human Rights Academy is a non-governmental organization that works to strengthen the respect for the international human rights in Norway and abroad. HRA offers lectures, workshops and courses on a variety of topics on human rights, multicultural understanding and peaceful conflict resolution.

The webinar will be held in English.
