

MigAct strives towards an inclusive and diverse civil society.

MigAct brings together people with a migratory background, local civic initiatives and NGOs that aim at bringing positive change to our society. It serves as a place for sharing experience and knowledge. It provides a platform for mutual support and networking of both active individuals and civil society organizations. MigAct empowers and inspires people with a migratory background to become an inherent part of Czech civil society.

LONG-TERM GOALS

Establishing cooperation and networking among diverse civil society actors (MigAct network).

Working towards removing barriers and creating opportunities for participation in civic life for people with a migratory background (e.g. language barriers, lack of contacts and networks, lack of knowledge on how civil society works in Czechia, etc.).

Establishing permanent cooperation with Prague City Hall.

Providing education and counseling in the field of civic participation, competences and skills.

ACTIVITIES

Organizing events, seminars and trainings.

Providing a platform for networking purposes, sharing know-how and mutual support of MigAct supporters.

Providing counseling (participatory intercultural work).

Maintaining a database of cooperating civil society organizations and institutions.

Raising awareness aimed to strengthen the intercultural openness of civil society and institutions.
